A Message from the Editor

Since its founding in 1998, TCNJ Journal of Student Scholarship has grown with the College. With its 2014 edition, the Journal has reached its sixteenth volume and entered its eighth year of electronic publication, readily accessible both on and off campus. In addition, all previous editions of the Journal, formerly available only in paper copy, are now available electronically at http://www.tcnj.edu/~joss/issues.html.

The quality of the wide range of essays published in this volume reflects the firm commitment of TCNJ’s students, faculty, and administration to premiership among the nation’s undergraduate colleges. I wish to thank the many people who have contributed to Volume XVI of TCNJ Journal of Student Scholarship beginning with the students whose papers are contained herein and the professors who encouraged and mentored their work. The administration of President R. Barbara Gitenstein and Provost Jacqueline Taylor graciously provided moral and financial support and release time, without which this volume would not have been possible. Recently retired Assistant Provost Nancy Freudenthal has been instrumental to the production and publication of this volume; I am grateful for her time and expertise. I also extend thanks to web designer Matthew Winkel for his help in converting the Journal to its electronic format. For consultation on production matters, I thank Lisa Angeloni, Vice President for Enrollment Management. I offer thanks to the members of the editorial board of the Journal for lending their time and talents to the reviewing of papers in the midst of many other responsibilities. Paulette LaBar, very recently retired from the Department of English, kindly and expertly assisted in the editing of the essays printed in this volume and periodically updated the website of the Journal. I would also like to thank my wife, Jeanne Conerly, and our daughter, Katherine, for their support and understanding during this very busy year.

For information about the Journal, including submission procedures, format requirements, and application forms, please contact me at: (609) 771-2155 or dventuro@tcnj.edu; or, visit the Journal website at: http://www.tcnj.edu/~joss.

Now, I invite you to click on the essays published in this volume at http://www.tcnj.edu/~joss/index.html, and to read and enjoy them.
